

RIGBY SUMMER

cosmic Americana from Stillwater, Okla.

Rigby Summer weaves an Americana soundscape that reflects the road she's traveled, from her Kansas City jazz upbringing to the beach pop of her former home in southern California to the red dirt roots of her current home in Stillwater, Oklahoma.

SOUNDS LIKE: a cross between Brandi Carlile and Patsy Cline with a dash of Johnny Cash swagger—a little modern, a little old-fashioned, always earnest.

Rigby Summer can perform as a solo act or as a trio/band, with upright bass and pedal steel and/or fiddle backing her.

HONORS/FESTIVAL INVITATIONS:

Opening for Chely Wright at Ottawa Memorial Auditorium, Ottawa, KS (2021)
Cowboy Family Festival @ Tumbleweed, Stillwater, OK (2021)
New Mexico State Fair, Albuquerque, NM (2021)
Washakie County Fair, Worland, WY (2021)
Firewater Fifth Festival, Saratoga, WY (2020)
Wyoming Singer-Songwriter Contest (Judge-2020-21, Semifinalist/Audience Choice-2019)
Bob Childers' Gypsy Cafe, Stillwater, OK (2019, 2018)
Stillwater Music Festival, Stillwater, OK (2019)
Norman Music Festival, Norman, OK (band-2019, solo-2018)
Woody Guthrie Festival (Performer-2018, Songwriting Contest Honorable Mention-2017)
AMP Fest, Oklahoma City, OK (2018)
Host/Founder, Monday@Modella Songwriter Showcase, Stillwater, OK (2017-present)

DISCOGRAPHY:

Geography (LP) / coming Fall 2021
Dancing Alone (EP) / released November 2020
Ballad of the Star (Single) / released December 2019

BOOKING CONTACT:

hellothere@rigbysummer.com // 816-217-8090

EPK (with music): <https://rigbysummer.com/media>

REFERENCES:

Daniel Kosel, musician & booker
Washakie (WY) County Fair
406-437-4006

Tiffany Evans, director
Ottawa (KS) Municipal Auditorium
785-248-9656

Danny Burau, owner
Firewater Public House
Saratoga, WY
303-641-2329

"...one of the most gorgeous, soulful voices
I have heard in our genre..."

—Xanthe Alexis, performing songwriter